2009 clearance on One Gallon Container Grown Daylilies
We've got hundreds of One Gallon Container Grown Daylilies, that need new homes!

Perfect for a landscape planting.

A mix of double fans, triples, quads and better, these will transplant easily and bloom this July. Most are named daylilies, although some have lost their names and a few are misnamed. Many have been in containers several years or longer proving how tough these cultivars are.

These plants would be perfect for a larger planting where the criteria is good hardy plants in a variety of heights, forms and colours.

Guaranteed Healthy – Guaranteed Double fans or better

Take 1 – 20 your choice $5.00 ea

21 – 50 your choice $4.00 ea
